

STUDENT MEDIA

Student Media at Washburn University offers multiple experiences for students. The Review is the student newspaper, which publishes 13 email newsletters weekly during the fall and spring semester. Students maintain the Washburn Review website, www.washburnreview.org (<http://www.washburnreview.org>), as well.

Washburn's award-winning student publication has a long history of offering the student body and faculty current news, interesting features and lively opinions. The Review staff is open to all interested students to apply; visit the office in the basement of Memorial Union.

Students also produce two issues of Indigo Magazine each year as well as the Sapphire Yearbook. Both the Indigo magazine and the Sapphire yearbook earned the All-Kansas distinction from the Kansas Collegiate Press for its 2023 publications.

Student Media offers opportunities for learning and applying technology across a variety of platforms. It employs reporters, photographers, podcasters, videographers, designers, sales and promotion staff, copy editors, editors and web managers.
