

FOUNDATIONS OF PHLEBOTOMY

The Foundations of Phlebotomy program is designed for high school students who want to enter the field of phlebotomy or other healthcare fields.

Students must be 18 years of age and must pass a national exam upon completion of the program to be eligible for certification. This program will offer students preparation to test for the industry-recognized credentials listed below.

This program will offer students preparation to test for the industry-recognized credentials listed below.

Program Information

- Required Math Score: Level 4
- Required Reading Score: Level 4
- Program Start (semesters): August; January
- Financial Aid available (for post-secondary students only): No
- Veteran Benefits Eligible (for post-secondary students only): No

Industry-recognized credentials: American Medical Technologies
Phlebotomy Technician

Certificate Requirements

Code	Title	Hours
HCT 105	First Aid & CPR	1
HCT 108	Health Occupations I	4
HCT 126	Medical Terminology	3
HCT 160	Fundamentals of Phlebotomy	2
HCT 164	Phlebotomy Lab	2
HCT 166	Phlebotomy Clinical Practicum	2
Total Hours		14